TALK AMONG PLAYER FOLK

Business in the Country Bad and Companies Returning.

Burtley Campbell's Sons Want "The White Slave,"

Companies that went out a few weeks ago bathed in the rosy sunshine of hope (which is putting it very sweetly) are coming back to New York so rapid-ly that it looks as though the Rialto would soon be impassable. Business out of town is reported to be execrable, and plays that have made handsome profits other years are scarcely able to pay offices of the dramatic agents one hears L the names include some attractions that course, this does not refer to standard attractions that play in the big cities. It seems to be the small towns that are laxation. Of course, it is all set down much discouraged. They are looking closing of the Rogina Vokes company has caused the wildest sort of dismay This, however, is positively due to the in New York, before starting for the

"The Second Mrs. Tanqueray" is to be done in German very shortly, but Pinero has made a stipulation that the German version shall be a literal translation, and not an adaptation. Fortunately Mrs. Kendall does not speak German, so she will not be seen in the plece in Berlin.

IN THE WORLD OF LABOR

John G. Peet has been elected President of Coopera' Union No. 34 and the name of the new Secretary is John Lawler. The Bill Posters' and Mattress-Makers' Unione sent new delegates to the central body of the United Hebrew Trades Unions this week.

Directly a baseball season is finished comes the talk of what players will be retained for the ensuing season and aiready h as gossip started as to who will be released from the New Yorks. The men on the New York team who appear to be slated for release are Mike Tiernan. Roger Connor, Mike Kelly, Eddie Burke and Minigan. Petty and Baldwin haven't pitched to please the management, and they are "on probation." "Shorty" Fuller's game has been erratic, and his case will be disposed of when he shows up next Spring. The players who have played good even ball and will undoubtedly be seen again next year in New York uniforms are: Wilson, German, Doyle, Rusie, Davis and Ward, It is by far too early to even suggest what new players may be secured next year. There are so many deals in baseball that to prophesy six months ahead is folly.

Some one in the Xavier A. C. said that Richard Copley was defeated in a live-mile run on Sunday, and it was so published in this column. This is what Mr. Copley says about the affair:
